Notes and Comments.

BROTHER Summers reports three more additions:

ONE baptized at New Cumberland, Ind., by Brother Rensch.

BROTHER Koontz of Conemaugh, Pa., opened up a new mission point, baptizing four applicants.

BROTHER William Koontz, of Williamstown, N. D., writes that he expects to be present at the coming conference.

BROTHER J. C. Mackey reports two baptisms on July 17, in his charge at Meyersdale, Pa., making thirteen additions since June 1.

PERSONS who have received blank statistical reports and cannot use them will please return them at once to brother J.
Allen Miller, Ashland, Ohio. There are calls for them which at present cannot be filled.

LAST week some one sent us questions for the Query Box, forgetting to sign his name, and we therefore cannot publish the queries. Our rule is that the name of the author must accompany the query, though if desired, the name will be withheld from publication. If the author will send his name, his queries with answers will appear in the EVANGELIST.

BROTHER J. L. Kimmel reports five accessions in his three congregations during communion services this summer. His churches are progressive, as they must be with a progressive leader. His report is a model one for brevity.

BROTHER E. H. Smith is doing successful mission work. From the reports that come in it seems that the most urgent work of the church at this time, is missionary work. New places are opening everywhere. "Come over and help us," is the call of men. "Go and preach the Gospel" is the call of God.

PROF. H. H. Fridline, a graduate of Wooster University, has been engaged to teach in the normal department of Ashland University, and will begin his duties Sept. 10, taking Prof. Rensch's place.
He has had considerable experience in teaching and will be a valuable addition to the faculty of our growing college.—

THE Ashland and Fair Haven King's Children held a joint entertainment on Sabbath evening, July 21, at the latter place. It was our privilege to be present, and it must be said that those who took part in the exercises acquitted themselves nobly. The music and recitations were very good, and on the whole the services were profitable and entertaining. We believe such union meetings to be productive of good and therefore recommend them.
This was our first visit to Fair Haven; we found a good people there; pleasant, sociable, entertaining, kind, and withal, full of earnest zeal for the Master.

BROTHER J. M. Bowman of Glenford, Ohio, has been chosen by the California brethren to conduct their camp meeting this fall. The brethren have made a good selection, and Brother Bowman will find a pleasant people in California. It is not a small honor to be chosen to this work. We congratulate Brother Bowman and the brethren in the far west.

THE Ashland city church, joins with the other denominations of town in holding union services each Sabbath evening for seven or eight weeks.

THE Warsaw, Ind., church has elected its pastor, C. F. Yoder, and Owen Switzer a layman, as its delegates to National Conference. These brethren write that they, with others expect to be present at the conference.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

"Twas Sunday noon. Two lads were going home from Sunday-school. With their books in their hands (and possibly rewards of merit in their pockets) they were in a sudden fit of bad temper, assailing each other with blows on the head.
The sight was one to cause the humorist to smile and the moralist to weep. But was the spectacle any less ludicrous and sad than that of grown-up church-members engaged in alternations and strifes that belie their sacred profession?—The Morning Star.
